Notice-Completed extension of Takamatsu constant temperature cooperative delivery center

Our company completed extension work of Takamatsu constant temperature cooperative delivery center. Working 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, we handle foods that require storage and delivery at constant temperature, such as bread, cooked rice and confectionery. We provide cooperative delivery service covering the whole area of Shikoku Island and Awaji Island, and this center is core base of our cooperative delivery center.

Products from multiple manufacturers are gathered in our center and classified according to the delivery destination, and then transported to a fixed temperature distribution center in Tokushima, Kochi and Ehime by a fixed temperature vehicle. After that, each prefecture is divided into delivery courses, and it is delivered to various delivery destinations from small to large stores.

Our strength is temperature control from distribution center sorting to shop delivery. Furthermore, a wide delivery network boasting about 100 delivery courses and delivery records of about 2,000 stores. Our company offer constant temperature cooperative delivery service and customers can trust us to maintain their supply chain.
